

JOB OPPORTUNITY HEAD COACH

Established in 2008, West Coast Fever possesses a rich history throughout its time at the very highest level of Australian domestic netball.

West Coast Fever is Western Australia's representative team in Netball's premier sporting competition, Suncorp Super Netball. West Coast Fever is not only a competitive force in netball's new era, but also a true indication of the pathway to the elite level for athletes right across the state.

Over the past four years the West Coast Fever Netball Club has delivered continued improvement in team performance competing in two Grand Finals, sustainable growth of partnerships and alliances, a growing membership and fan base and a strong people first focus with stability across our team members and high-performance staff.

After ten years at the Club, 2021 West Coast Fever Head Coach Stacey Marinkovich will commence her full-time role as the Australian Diamonds Head Coach, presenting the opportunity for a new leader to become a part of an elite high performance sport environment that supports continued success, in Perth, WA.

HEAD COACH

West Coast Fever Netball Club are excited about the prospects of the 2022 season and beyond, and we are seeking to appoint a Head Coach who is a proven team leader who will empower and lead our Suncorp Super Netball team and staffing group.

The role itself is responsible for leading and managing the development and implementation of a world class high performance program and a culture of success, with shared purpose and principles both on and off the court for the West Coast Fever Netball Team, coaching and support staff.

The successful candidate will drive our Club's vision forwards, manage a dynamic High Performance environment including staff and team, set the coaching and technical direction of the teams playing performance, support the Western Australian athlete pathway by continuing to identify emerging talented athletes from within, and with integrity lead the purpose and principles of West Coast Fever Netball Club.
