

Communications Officer

Base: Netball NI Office, Belfast (flexible)
Salary: £18,000 per annum, 25hrs per week

Top 8 National Team, supported by strong School, Club & League Foundations

Having secured funding through from the National Lottery Community Fund via the Dormant Accounts programme, Netball NI are delighted to be recruiting for a new position in our business of Communications Officer.

Reporting to the Executive Manager, the successful candidate will ensure Netball NI presents and projects itself in a clear and engaging manner that reflects the breadth of its activity (Participation & Performance) and maximises media opportunities.

The Officer will be responsible for managing Netball NI's own communication channels and leveraging external media to grow the Netball NI brand, deliver relevant information to Netball NI customers, heighten engagement with the netball community, partners and sponsors and increase the visibility of the sport.

The Officer will understand the communications and digital needs of the business, ensure the business' messages are delivered in a co-ordinated and integrated fashion and that content is developed and tailored to maximise consumer engagement. The Officer will build relationships and work closely with external media to maximise visibility of the sport, both for our NI Warriors and our domestic activities

The successful candidate will be required to attend a range of daytime, evening and occasional weekend events across Northern Ireland.
