WORLD NETBALL INDEPENDENT FINANCE DIRECTOR ROLE
BACKGROUND & DESCRIPTION

Role of World Netball\(^1\) Board

World Netball is the international governing body for the sport, recognised by the IOC. The World Netball Board’s primary purpose is to make high quality strategic decisions to grow value for the stakeholders of the federation.

The Board achieves this by determining direction and strategy, monitoring and reviewing performance against agreed targets and objectives, making revision where necessary.

The primary duty of each Director is to act in the best interests of World Netball. In exercising such responsibility Directors must act honestly, avoiding conflict of interest, with reasonable care and not for personal gain.

The Board governance framework creates the conditions to allow the Board to make strategic decisions and grow value and is defined in the Board’s Governance Policy.

Board Composition

The World Netball Board is made up of five (5) Directors and five (5) Regional Directors who are elected by each of the five (5) World Netball Regions. Full details may be found in the company’s Articles of Association\(^2\).

Election and Appointment of Board members:

The following roles are elected to by Congress and serve for four years from the date of the election until the close of the Congress/Event at which the position falls vacant.

Appendix

Responsibilities of World Netball Board Directors

Note: World Netball is the trading name of International Netball Federation Ltd.

Directors have overall responsibility for how a company is managed and run which means they must oversee, supervise, govern and control the company’s activities and operations. Directors also have ultimate responsibility for leading the company by determining direction and strategy, monitoring and reviewing performance against agreed targets and objectives, making revision where necessary.

Directors are subject to certain minimum standards of care, skill and diligence in discharging their duties. As a general rule, the standard applied will be that of the “reasonable person test”. It should be noted that a higher standard is likely to be applied to a person who offers their services as director who is qualified in a profession or by way of business expertise.

Failure to properly execute the duties and responsibilities of a director may result in civil and/or criminal proceedings being brought and subsequent disqualification as a director.

The overriding principle is that directors must act honestly and reasonably.

A summary of the main duties of a director towards their company is set out below. The duties of a World Netball Director in law are outlined in the Companies Act 2006 England and Wales (Part 10 Chapter 2 General Duties). A summary follows – note this is not an exhaustive and complete statement of a director’s duties and is subject to change. Directors who are unsure about their duties as a director in any particular circumstances should seek professional advice.

- Duty to act within powers

A director of International Netball Federation Ltd., trading as World Netball, must—

a) act in accordance with the company’s Memorandum and Articles of Association, and
b) only exercise powers for the purposes for which they are conferred.

- Duty to promote the success of the company

A director must act in the way they consider, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of World Netball for the benefit of its Members as a whole, and in doing so have regard (amongst other matters) to—

a) the likely consequences of any decision in the long term,
b) the interests of World Netball’s employees,
c) the need to foster World Netball’s relationships with Members, suppliers and other stakeholders,
d) the impact of World Netball’s operations on the community and the environment,
e) the desirability of World Netball maintaining a reputation for high standards of conduct, and
f) the need to act fairly as between Members of World Netball.

- Duty to exercise independent judgment
- Duty to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence
Duty to avoid conflicts of interest

A director of World Netball must avoid a situation in which they have, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the company.

This applies in particular to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity (and it is immaterial whether the company could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity).

Duty not to accept benefits from third parties

A director of World Netball must not accept a benefit from a third party conferred by reason of—

a) them being a director, or
b) their doing (or not doing) anything as director.

A “third party” means a person other than World Netball, an associated body corporate such as Regional Federation or a person acting on behalf of World Netball or an associated body corporate.

Duty to declare interest in proposed transaction or arrangement

If a director of World Netball is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the company, they must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other directors.
