

Overview

Suri Bartlett has over 45 years' experience in Finance and Management Consulting and was the co-founder and currently joint Managing Director of Tenzing Limited.

Suri has a Bachelor of Commerce degree majoring in Accounting and Information Systems, and a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics. He personally holds himself as a collaborative and inclusive team member with a reputation for developing enduring and trusted relationships with his clients.

Born in Sri Lanka, Suri has a strong awareness of the challenges young females in third world countries face culturally and otherwise to take part in sport, and therefore, is a firm believer in the value of sport for all ages and its contribution to health, wellbeing and developing personal confidence.

In sport Suri has a range of governance experience, both in netball specifically, where he sat on the Netball New Zealand Board for 9 years, and served as the Chair of their Audit, Finance and Risk Committee, as well as being a member of their Health and Safety subcommittee. Suri is currently on the Board of Sport New Zealand, Chairing the Audit, Finance and Risk committee.

Suri also currently sits on the board for Save the Children New Zealand, and hopes if he is appointed by Members at Congress as the new World Netball Finance Director that he will be able to share his knowledge of working with Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) and contribute to developing these partnerships, to assist World Netball on its mission to expand the reach and impact of the sport worldwide.
