Vitality Netball World Cup 2023 announces second phase of ticket sales!

South Africa (Cape Town), 10th February 2023 – The Vitality Netball World Cup 2023 (VNWC2023) Local Organizing Committee (LOC) has today announced the opening of the second phase of ticket sales for the VNWC2023.

The netball family who missed out on the first phase of ticket sales can now take advantage of this opportunity and secure their tickets for all 60 matches, including the all-important Semi-Finals, bronze medal match and Final, by visiting <https://nwc2023.org.za/tickets/>

You can view the full schedule for the event, here.

The hosts Netball South Africa (NSA) welcomed three of the world's top netball teams, Australia, New Zealand and England to Cape Town in January, for the recent Quad Series which was held in the VNWC2023 venue, the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CITCC). VNWC2023 Tournament Director, Ms. Priscilla Masisi, feels the country is now ready to welcome the netball family from the 28th July to 6th August.

Masisi, said: "The Quad series has indeed given the LOC an opportunity to have a dry run and identify opportunities to ensure our athletes and fans have a memorable world class experience, and we are not indeed far off in terms of our state of readiness in hosting this upcoming international spectacle with effect from July – August this year.

"Together with our title sponsor Vitality, our premium sponsors Telkom and Spar, and our partners including the South African government, we take this opportunity to call upon the global netball family and all South Africans, irrespective of whether they are netball fans, to go out there and buy their tickets whilst time permits because we are ready!"

There will be a range of tickets available across the tournament, with ticket prices starting from 500 ZA, and classified in various categories inclusive of gold, silver and bronze levels, as well as adult and junior prices, making it accessible for everyone to be part of the action!

With 16 qualifying countries the VNWC2023 will be the largest women's World sporting event ever to be held on African soil. Four African countries have qualified namely, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Malawi and Uganda. To see the draw and competition pools click here.

World Netball:

World Netball is the sole, internationally recognized governing body for netball affiliated to GAISF, the International World Games Association and the Association of Recognised International Sports Federations (ARISF), receiving funding from the International Olympic Committee.

World Netball creates a better world through netball, inspiring netballers to embrace opportunities and achieve their potential. Netball is played in more than 100 countries around the world with 79 National Netball Associations affiliated to World Netball. The associations are grouped into five Regions – Africa Netball, Americas Netball, Asia Netball, Europe Netball and Oceania Netball – each with a respective Regional Federation. Regional Federations are an integral part of the global governance structure and assist in the development and implementation of World Netball's Strategy To Grow, To Play, To Inspire, policies and the development of the sport in their respective regions.

The Netball World Cup (NWC), previously known as the World Netball Championships is netball's flagship event owned by World Netball, and it brings together the top 16 teams in the world every four years. The hosts of the NWC automatically qualify for the competition, as well as the top five teams in the World Netball World Rankings on the date of qualification. The remaining 10 teams are decided through qualifiers in World Netball's 5 regions, as the top two teams from each qualifier will be invited by World Netball to compete at the NWC. The NWC, which first started in 1963, showcases netball around the world through a range of broadcast partners introducing Netball to a whole new audience.

World Netball Congress is also held alongside the event providing a global forum for Netball nations to come together, innovate, share ideas and celebrate women in sport. The Netball World Cup 2023 will be held in Cape Town, South Africa from the 28th July to the 6th August 2023 at the International Convention Centre.
