

EMBARGOED UNTIL THURSDAY 31ST JULY AT 13:30PM BST

Glasgow 2026 Unveils Session Schedule with Netball Final Taking Place on Sunday 2nd August.

Glasgow 2026 has today announced the official Sessions Schedule for the Commonwealth Games setting the stage for 10 unforgettable days of world-class sport, landmark moments and packed venues across the country.

Running from 23rd July to 2nd August, the Games will bring together 3,000 athletes from 74 nations and territories to compete across 10 sports and six Para sports, with more than 200 medals to be won in 50 medal sessions.

The Session Schedule confirms that the netball competition will take place from Saturday 25th July, until Sunday 2nd August.

Across the nine days of netball competition at the event, 12 teams will compete, with the next World Netball \(WN\) World Rankings update taking place in September confirming those that will be invited to compete.

Speaking on the news, WN CEO, Fiona Harold said: “This is another hugely exciting milestone in our journey towards our biggest multi-sport event in the netball calendar, the Glasgow 2026 Commonwealth Games.

“At the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games the netball programme proved to be extremely popular in terms of both ticket sales and broadcast reach, as our teams put on a true world-class spectacle for the world to enjoy, captivating both existing and new fans globally – I have no doubt we will see more of the same at Glasgow 2026.”
