Netball World Cup Sydney 2027 Qualifier Europe Available Globally

World Netball (WN) has today announced that the Netball World Cup Sydney 2027 (NWC2027) Qualifier Europe will be available live and on demand globally, with international fans able to tune in on NetballPass*.

The event will take place from the 25th – 27th September at the Playsport Arena, East Kilbride, Scotland with the hosts welcoming Northern Ireland, Republic of Ireland and Wales.

International netball fans can follow every second of the action for just £5.99 GBP on NetballPass, whilst those in the Republic of Ireland can watch on NetballPass for free.

Where to watch information for those in the UK will be announced by Netball Scotland in due course.

The top two teams at the end of the competition will be invited by WN to compete at the NWC2027, which is taking place from the 25th August – 5th September 2027.

International fans should head to NetballPass to purchase their passes, here.

World Netball

World Netball is the sole, internationally recognised, governing body for netball affiliated to the Association of Recognised International Sports Federations (ARISF), receiving funding from the International Olympic Committee.

World Netball creates a better world through netball, inspiring netballers to embrace opportunities and achieve their potential. Netball is played in more than 100 countries around the world with 75 National Netball Associations affiliated to World Netball. The associations are grouped into five Regions – Africa Netball, Americas Netball, Asia Netball, Europe Netball and Oceania Netball – each with a respective Regional Federation. Regional Federations are an integral part of the global governance structure and assist in the implementation of World Netball policies and the development of the sport in their respective regions.
